

1. To hold a grudge
against someone
is when

... you had a argument or bad experience with someone and you can't forget abou it, you want to hurt him/her.

2. To throw a tantrum
about something
is when ...

... someone (usually a baby) loses control in a noisy way and behaves really bad, it's quite a childish behaviour.

3. If you get on one's nerves you ...

... irritate or exasperate
this person with your comments or behaviour.

4. To put someone down means to ...

... hurt this person's
feelings.

5. If you have it in for someone you ...

...intend or want to harm
this person, specially
because you hold a
grudge.

6. If you have a rocky relationship ... your relation is ...

unstable /
finished /
harmonious ?

7. If your relationship
has turned sour ...

it is unpleasant
or
very romantic
now?

8. If someone has turned his/her back on you ...

... are you still friends?

9. When you look up to
someone you ...

Admire this person.

10. But, if you look down to someone...

... you feel and show
contempt towards
him/her.

Think about the correct prepositions for these expressions you've just seen before ...

hold a grudge ...
someone

to throw a tantrum
... something

to get ... someone's nerves

to put someone's ...
(to hurt someone)

to have it ... for
someone

to have a ... relationship (unstable)

a relationship can turn ...
(become unpleasant)

to turn one's back ...
someone

to look up ... someone

to look down ... someone

Now, complete these sentences with the appropriate ones.

1. I never meant to ... by asking so many questions, but I did it.
2. If you hadn't made fun at Rachel, you wouldn't have
3. Since Patrick doubted about the coach's decisions, he seems to ... him.
4. Many people try to avoid ... but some like the adventure of the ups and downs.
5. Peter and Stella's relationship ... sour after she discovered he had many secrets.
6. ... on a friend in trouble is the worst you can do and it's difficult to forgive.
7. He has always devoted his life to research, and his work is famous all over the world. Many scientists ... him.
8. I can't stand him anymore. He's always ... us. He thinks he's better than anybody.
9. My little brother is always ... about everything. My parents are desperate!
10. I think that she's ... against me after our argument, even after saying I was sorry.