

Which place is it?

1. A burial ground for dead people.
2. You can go there if you want to hang out with friends. You can usually have a drink. Sometimes, they also offer some food.
3. A building higher than wide. In the past, they were often used as prisons. It can stand alone or form part of a building.
4. A room, or series of rooms, or a building for the showing and often the sale of works of art.
5. An arched passageway, usually with shops on each side.
6. The building occupied by a community of nuns or monks.
7. A hotel for travellers with accommodation and free parking facilities, typically next to a road or motorway.
8. A large area with shade trees used as a public walk. It can also name a large area with many shops and restaurants.
9. A residential apartment.
10. A fortified and protected building, usually with a wall around it, where kings and queens live (especially in the past).

Which place is it?

1. Graveyard.
2. Pub.
3. Tower.
4. Art gallery.
5. Arcade.
6. Convent.
7. Motel.
8. Mall.
9. Flat.
10. Castle.

Now, it's your turn.
Define these places.

Palace, resort, cottage, stationer's, fast-food restaurant, buffet, abbey, crypt, (concert) hall, stadium, street market.